

Writing Tricks
Ly-How Adverbs
#2

Directions: Rewrite each of the sentences below by adding an adverb that ends in -ly. Remember, the Ly-How Adverbs describe how the verb was done. The verbs have been underlined for you.

Example: The baby crawled across the floor.
The baby crawled quickly across the floor.

1. We walked through the house so we would not wake anyone.

---

---

2. The waitress carried the hot soup across the crowded restaurant.

---

---

3. The glass dish was wrapped and placed into the box for shipping.

---

---

4. After the boat sank, everyone was able to swim to shore.

---

---

5. Shawn went up stage to receive his award for most valuable player.

---

---

6. Seeing the girl in trouble, Peter fought the dogs away with a stick.

---

---

7. With only ten minutes before school started, Kristlyn grabbed her books and ran out the door.

---

---

8. The wrestler swung his victim around the ring.

---

---

9. This being her very first flight, Ashley boarded the airplane.

---

---

10. Carlos jumped around the field because the umpire called him out.

---

---

11. "We're going to be late if we don't hurry," Dad yelled.

---

---

12. Wishing she owned one, Jennifer eyed Jessica's Rug-Rats poster.

---

---

Writing Tricks
Ly-How Adverbs
#3

Directions: Rewrite each of the sentences below by adding an adverb that ends in ly. Remember, the Ly How Adverbs describe how the verb was done. The verbs have been underlined for you.

Example: The baby crawled across the floor.
The baby crawled quickly across the floor.

1. Selena walked into the boys' bathroom thinking it was a classroom.

---

---

2. The students laughed for ten minutes because they won a bet with their teacher.

---

---

3. Jessica sang in front of the school.

---

---

4. The students entered the cafeteria.

---

---

5. My mother kissed my forehead and said, "Pleasant dreams."

---

---

6. "Herman, my goldfish, is dead," said Liliana.

---

---

7. "That was smart," Joseph said after I spilled my juice.

---

---

8. The woman marched out of the meeting because she lost the election.

---

---

9. The puppy sniffed the box, wondering if there was a treat for him inside.

---

---

10. "I'm not eating those pickles" David said.

---

---

11. My heart beat as the roller coaster raced down the hill.

---

---

Follow Up: Write the adverbs from worksheet #1 in a sentence.

Ex. Having won the award for best speller, Roxanna contently smiled for the camera.

