

- Put a check (✓) over articles.
- Underline nouns once.
- Write pron. over personal pronouns.
- Underline verbs twice.
- Watch for contractions.

1. She's <sup>pron.</sup> not afraid of snakes or mice.

2. We'll <sup>pron.</sup> miss <sup>pron.</sup> them over the weekend.

3. I'll <sup>pron.</sup> stay here during the parade.

4. We've <sup>pron.</sup> counted the pennies in the jar.

5. He'll <sup>pron.</sup> read the first story in the book.

6. They'd <sup>pron.</sup> like the pizza better with peppers on it. <sup>pron.</sup>

7. You're <sup>pron.</sup> the best dog in the show, Sam.

8. I<sup>pron.</sup>'ve never been to Japan or China.

9. We<sup>pron.</sup>'d enjoy a trip to South America.

10. I<sup>pron.</sup>'m sure it<sup>pron.</sup>'s correct.

11. They<sup>pron.</sup>'re in college, but I<sup>pron.</sup>'m not.

12. You<sup>pron.</sup>'ll hide behind the tree.

WORKSHEET

10

- Identify all parts of speech that have been learned so far.
- Watch for interrogative sentences.

1. Is Detroit located near the Great Lakes?

2. <sup>pron.</sup> They'll be late for the party, and <sup>pron.</sup> I'll be angry.

3. Robin Hood stole from rich people and helped poor people.

4. Can <sup>pron.</sup> you be in Denver on January 8, 1994?

5. I thought <sup>pron.</sup> you'd give <sup>pron.</sup> her a chance.

6. Do <sup>pron.</sup> the peanuts make you thirsty?

7. The ✓ little children enjoyed the ✓ clowns at the ✓ circus.

8. Did Tanya go into the ✓ store for a ✓ newspaper?

9. The ✓ boy smiled at the ✓ new puppy.

10. She's <sup>pron.</sup> been in Africa with the ✓ Peace Corps.

11. The ✓ president lives in the ✓ White House in Washington, D.C.

12. Will ✓ the old riverboat ever carry passengers again?