

Simple and Compound Sentence Practice Key

Label all simple sentences by putting an S on the line. Label all compound sentences by putting Cd on the line. If the sentence is a compound sentence, highlight or circle the words and/or punctuation that makes it compound.

Ex.   S   The tree outside my window is very big.

  Cd   The tree outside my window is very big, so it provides a lot of shade in the summertime.

Cd 1. You may love the Broncos, but my favorite team will always be the Dallas Cowboys.

Cd 2. You can have a sandwich for lunch, or you can buy your lunch at school.

Cd 3. My favorite dog that I ever had was a white husky mix named Jude; he died seven years ago.

S 4. I have been stuck in this long line for the past thirty minutes.

Cd 5. Sam didn't clean his room when his mom told him to; consequently, he couldn't play with his friends for the whole weekend.

Cd 6. I love the Dallas Cowboys, and I hope to go to their game in Denver this year.

S 7. My family loves to watch American Ninja Warrior together every week.

Cd 8. It was a twelve hour drive to Yellowstone, so I was afraid that we were going to have to set up our camper in the dark.

S 9. Mrs. Terlisner and her husband named their son Witten after the Cowboys player, Jason Witten.

S 10. For most of his life, Michael trained for the Olympics.

Cd 11. I love to watch Reese smile; it brings me great joy.

Cd 12. Reese likes to eat pizza; however, she doesn't eat it often because it makes her throat hurt.

S 13. At 7:30, we will all go into the auditorium to watch the play.

Cd 14. Jim studied hard for his calculus test; nevertheless, he didn't do as well as he had hoped to.

Cd 15. Chick fil A was closed tonight due to a power outage; therefore, we will need to pick another place to eat.