

- Identify all parts of speech learned so far.
- Draw arrows from adjectives and adverbs to the words they modify.

1. Pure water is delicious on a hot day.

Handwritten annotations: 'adj.' with arrows pointing to 'water' and 'delicious'; 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'day'; a checkmark above 'a'; a checkmark above 'is'.

2. Baseball wasn't always popular in Japan.

Handwritten annotations: 'adv.' with arrows pointing to 'wasn't' and 'always'; 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'popular'; a checkmark above 'Japan'.

3. The bright torch lit the cave very nicely.

Handwritten annotations: 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'bright'; 'adv.' with arrows pointing to 'very' and 'nicely'; 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'cave'; a checkmark above 'lit'; a checkmark above 'the'; a checkmark above 'cave'.

4. Aunt Dolores phoned and told us about the blizzard

Handwritten annotations: 'pron.' with an arrow pointing to 'us'; a checkmark above 'blizzard'.

in New England.

5. Tiny snakes are sometimes quite dangerous.

Handwritten annotations: 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'snakes'; 'adv.' with arrows pointing to 'sometimes' and 'quite'; 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'dangerous'; a checkmark above 'are'.

6. We will plant an oak tree there.

Handwritten annotations: 'adv.' with an arrow pointing to 'there'; 'adj.' with an arrow pointing to 'tree'; a checkmark above 'plant'; a checkmark above 'an'.

7. The spaceship landed safely on the back side of the moon.

8. I won't go too far into the dense jungle.

9. Always close the windows during a thunderstorm.

10. The ugly fish suddenly frightened the brave diver.

11. The plumber can't fix the leaky sink today.

12. Luckily, I found the coins on the rug.